

Role & Responsibilities of the Welfare & Deputy Welfare Officer.

The Club Welfare & Deputy Welfare Officer (CWO) is responsible for acting as a source of advice about safeguarding and protecting children and adults at risk, promoting good practice and for coordinating action within the Club on receipt of any concerns or referrals.

The Person

The CWO should be well known in the club and have a strong child focus. The CWO needs to be accessible, and approachable for, children, young people, and adults at risk. They should not be the coach or volunteer with direct responsibility for coordinating or delivering the junior programmes at the club. They should be a member of the club or an individual member of British Canoeing.

Mandatory Training Requirements

- UK Coaching Safeguarding and Protecting Children or equivalent.
- Renew their safeguarding training every 3 years by undertaking British Canoeing's Online Safeguarding Renewal training, UK Coaching's Safeguarding and Protecting Children Online Renewal training or equivalent. Refresher / renewal training can only be accepted if the face to face, basic training workshop (or training via the virtual classroom) has been completed within 5 years. It cannot be used as a substitute for the initial face to face (or virtual classroom) training course.
- Equivalent training can be accepted, please refer to Equivalent Child Protection Training.
